117 E. St. Rd 234 Ladoga, IN 47954.

Dr. James Diehl was elected to the Board of General Superintendents in 1993 and served 16 years in this role. As Paul described his ministry to Timothy in 2 Timothy 1:11, so Dr. Diehl describes his calling - to be a pastor, a preacher, and an administrator. While laying down the administrative call, his passion continues with an ongoing preaching ministry from a pastor's heart.

ADVENT DEVOTIONAL - PSALM 126

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dreamed. Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy. Then it was said among the nations, "The Lord has done great things for them."

The Lord has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy. Restore our fortunes, Lord, like streams in the Negev. Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy. Those who go out weeping, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with them.

No matter what God has brought you through there is a tendency to be concerned about what He will do for you in the here and now? I love the words of the song: "Through It All"

*I've had many tears and sorrows, I've had questions for tomorrow, There've been times I didn't know right from wrong:
But in every situation God gave blessed consolation That my trials come to only make me strong.
Through it all, through it all, I've learned to trust in Jesus, I've learned to trust in God;
Through it all, through it all, I've learned to depend upon His Word.*

Psalm 126 is a song for pilgrims as they make their way up to Jerusalem. It serves as a reminder of what God has done in the past and what He can do for us even today. When God had restored the fortunes of His people in the past our author suggests it was like a good dream-something almost unbelievable. As a result they were filled with joy because of all the great things God had done.

At times our focus is more upon what we are going through or what we have gone through rather than the means by which God helped us through! Maybe today you are sowing with tears and your present circumstance or situation is far from your liking. Focus on God! Avoid the temptation of merely thinking of yourself.

Maybe the difficulty today is our constant focus upon ourselves and the lack of awareness of God and what He is doing through each and every moment of our life. The faithfulness of God in our past is a constant reminder of His ability and care for us in our present and future. So start singing the praises of God! Remember those who sow in tears will reap in joy!
